Opening of zero amount balance accounts

†*194. SHRI BHAGWATI SINGH: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are going to initiate the process of opening the zero amount (balance) accounts in all Banks for daily wagers and people belonging to lowest income group;

(b) if so, by when the accounts would be opened under this system;

(c) whether Government have information about the agency monitoring these Banks, the conditions for keeping balance in the account, fees to be charged on the operation of accounts or these accounts would be free of charge;

(d) whether Government have started providing complete information about relevant rules to the applicants before opening the accounts; and

(e) if so, details thereof, State-wise?

THE MINISTER OF FINANCE (SHRI P. CHIDAMBARAM): (a) to (e) To provide banking services to all segments of the people, particularly the poor, the Reserve Bank of India has advised all banks to make available a basic banking 'no frills' account either with 'nil' or 'very low minimum balance'. Charges of such an account should be such that these accounts become accessible to vast sections of the population. The nature and number of transactions in such accounts could be restricted, but made known to the customer in advance in a transparent manner. Banks have to give wide publicity to the facility of such a 'no frills' account indicating the facilities and charges in a transparent manner.
